CDNW Newsletter 5 - January 2010

Busy Year for CDNW?

Affiliations - Registrations - Entries Flying In

Riders are beginning to Register with CDNW. Bil report that, already 60 registrations have been received since the forms went on the web.

Some of the same Clubs / Teams have affiliated and a couple of brand new ones.

Maxgear.co.uk, the Road Race league Sponsors, are running a January Sale with some great offers on some very useful bits and pieces, so click on the link and have a browse around their site at www.maxgear.co.uk

I know it's not exactly CDNW but the North West Competition Administrator (that's me) is running a course for Assistant Commissaires (Road / Circuit) at Preston Arena in February. The details are below.

WE can't run races without good officials and if we are to keep raising the bar, then more is better.

Regional Assistant Commissaire Course - Road / Circuit

The North West Region is hosting a Regional Assistant Commissaire course in February.

The Details are as follows:

Date: Saturday 20th February 2010

Time: 09:30 for Tea - Coffee - Introductions

10:00 start - session 1

 Club Affiliation

Has your club affiliated yet? Have a look on the CDNW website and if not, speak to your Club Contact or Treasurer now.

13:00 Lunch provided by N.W. Region

13.30 Start - session 2

16:30 Finish

Venue: Preston Sports Arena

Tom Benson way

Preston

This course is free to existing British Cycling Members and for any person wishing to join, who has never been a member, a free Bronze level membership can be offered prior to the course or on the day.

Anyone who is interested in becoming an official please email your contact details to:

ivor@cdnw.org

I will include you on the list of candidates who will receive a pre-course pack about 10 days prior.

Regards,

Ivor Armstrong (Regional Competition Administrator)
